

16 – 24 JULY
FREE
SHOREDITCHFESTIVAL.ORG.UK
ALONG REGENT'S CANAL
LONDON N1 & E8

shoreditch
festival
2011

ART WALK

developed and funded by Shoreditch Trust

A

BOULDER

John Frankland
Shoreditch Park
 This solid piece of granite weighing nearly 100 tonnes is one of two massive sculptural monuments commissioned by Shoreditch Trust and PEER in 2008. As well as its presence as a public sculpture, you can engage with the boulder in a direct and physical way – by climbing on it!

B

HOXTON ELECTROVISION

Bob and Roberta Smith
Diana House, 101 Hoxton Street
 One of five large text pieces painted directly onto walls in Shoreditch identifying small businesses. These works salute the faded painted advertisements from the late 19th and early 20th century, and celebrate the importance of the local entrepreneur. a PEER commission 2006

C

DAD'S

Bob and Roberta Smith (see B)
128 Hoxton Street

D

I LOVE HOXTON

Kevin Harrison
Pitfield Street/Hoxton Street Roundabout
 London artist Kevin Harrison made visits to local junior schools and based his design for this sculpture on drawings made by the school children. a Hoxton Trust commission 2001 for Hackney Council

E

HERON & FROG

Mirrored steel water sculptures along the canal.

F

YOUNG LONDON

This outdoor exhibition is a collection of photographs taken by members of Headstart, A New Direction's programme for young Londoners aged 15-25. a Shoreditch Festival 2011 commission

G

SHOREDITCH PIGEON POOL

Waterhouse Restaurant, 10 Orsman Road
 The official Shoreditch Festival restaurant and café hosts a graphic exhibition of the infamous Shoreditch Trust Pigeons (the other local community!) from the past five years.

H

REFLECTIVE WORKS

Free Form Arts Trust worked with The Crown & Manor Club and the Shoreditch Play Park to design and produce these artworks, exploring the interplay of light and water. a Shoreditch Trust commission 2003

I

I AM HERE (FUGITIVE IMAGES)

Samuel House, Dunston Road & Clarissa Street
 I AM HERE is a direct response to the experience of living in an estate that is in the process of being regenerated. Featuring large scale photographs of current and former residents, the project attempts to humanise architecture awaiting demolition.

J

RON'S EEL AND SHELL FISH

Bob and Roberta Smith (see B)

K

MOSAICS

Along the towpath

L

FIVE YEARS

Picture Theory, Gordon Hon
Unit 66 Regent Studios, 8 Andrew's Road
 Saturday–Sunday 1–6pm
 Five Years is an artist run gallery space founded in 1998, which aims to create a direct relationship between the process of making art and the exhibition of the work.

M

SPACE IN BETWEEN

Lilah Fowler [9 – 30 Jul]
Unit 26 Regent Studios, 8 Andrew's Road
 Saturdays 12–6pm
 Fowler's objects and drawings re-evaluate how we define our environment. These new site-responsive works explore changing form and surface materiality, and the way in which we navigate them.

N

MOT INTERNATIONAL

Characters in Search of an Exit [9 Jul – 13 Aug]
Unit 54 Regent Studios, 8 Andrew's Road
 Tuesday–Saturday 11am–6pm
 Group show with Mircea Cantor, Beatrice Gibson, Mauricio Guillén, Amalia Pica and Ric Warren.

O

NETTIE HORN

Nouvelles vague & other hunting stories
 [24 Jun – 7 Aug]
25b Vyner Street
 Wednesday–Sunday 12–6pm
 Tinged by humour and self-derision, these 'masters of the everyday – fictionalised' expose the madness of the human condition.

P

FRED

Stanley William Hayter [30 Jun – 7 Aug]
45 Vyner Street
 Wednesday–Sunday 12–6pm
 Paintings, drawings and prints.

Q

CELL PROJECT SPACE

Rain [30 Jun – 31 Jul]
258 Cambridge Heath Road
 Friday–Sunday 12–6pm
 Eight artists explore the material slippage between public and private experiences of collective space. Curated by Nicolas Deshayes.

R

THE APPROACH

Stuart Cumberland [24 Jun – 31 Jul]
47 Approach Road
 Wednesday–Sunday 12–6pm
 New paintings.

S

Towards...

CHISENHALE GALLERY

64 Chisenhale Road
 One of London's most innovative galleries for contemporary visual art.

FOLLY FOR A FLYOVER

Under the A12 Flyover, Hackney Wick
 A six-week programme of waterside cinema, performance and play.